

Zeng Jie

Attorney at Law, qualified as a Chinese Certified Public Accountant and a Chinese Certified Tax Agent.

Ms. Zeng graduated from Shanghai University of International Business and Economics and obtained Juris Master's degree in International Law. She passed the Bar Examination in 2015, joined Leezhao Law Office in 2019, and obtained the Lawyer License (License No: 131012025).

Ms. Zeng has served and provided professional legal services for many multinational corporations and foreign-invested enterprises from Japan, Europe and America, as well as large state-owned enterprises, private enterprises and other domestic enterprises, of which the industries cover electronics and electrical appliances, commerce and trade, real estate, culture and entertainment, software, telecommunications, etc. and the practice areas include investment, M&A, assets reorganization, corporation, commerce, real estate, debt recovery, finance and taxation, liquidation, bankruptcy, guarantee and so on.

Ms. Zeng has rich experience in taxation field such as tax consultation and tax dispute resolution, and can also deal with the issues of daily legal affairs and dispute resolution arising from the establishment and operation of a corporation as well. Ms. Zeng's typical cases include the following:

- Providing various consulting services related to China taxation for various clients, specifically on tax planning for enterprise reorganization and M&A transaction, non-resident enterprise tax advice and planning, individual income tax planning, and enterprise tax compliance investigation, etc.
- Participating in several projects dealing with the absorption and merger and equity transfer of various enterprises, cooperating in the process to complete relevant governmental procedures, and providing relevant legal opinions on matters such as employee disposal, special tax treatment filings, and debt liquidation; Assisting a client in the filing of claims in the bankruptcy reorganization of a domestic conglomerate, and ultimately obtained a favorable result on debt recovery for the client.
- Providing multiple legal opinions on anti-monopoly and anti-unfair competition matters for domestic enterprises; Assisting a large domestic enterprise in obtaining approval from government departments for overseas investment, as well as performing numerous special administrative licensing procedures for many clients, for which having extensive experience in communicating with administrative departments.

- Participating in numerous litigation and arbitration proceedings of a series of cases including disputes over sales and purchase contracts and product quality disputes of foreign-invested enterprises in China; Participating in litigation proceedings for shareholders' disputes of various enterprises; Participating in arbitration proceedings for disputes over software license and service of a well-known foreign-invested enterprise; etc.

Ms. Zeng's working languages are Chinese and English.