

WEI Yiran

Attorney at Law

Attorney Wei graduated from East China University of Political Science and Law with a Juris Master degree. She joined Shanghai Leezhao Law Office in 2021 and subsequently obtained the Lawyer's Practice Certificate (License No.: 131012085).

Attorney Wei consistently provides domestic compliance services for large foreign-funded enterprises, outbound investment services for Chinese enterprises, and cross-border dispute resolution services for domestic and international enterprises.

Representative cases include:

- Conducted on-site secondment at the privacy department of a Japanese Fortune 500 company's Shanghai headquarters, assessing compliance of personal information collection/usage by business departments and providing process improvement recommendations;
- Participated in handling a contract work dispute between a German automotive parts supplier and a major domestic vehicle manufacturer, securing a favorable ruling;
- Assisted a Chinese enterprise in establishing an outbound investment legal structure, providing services for investments in Mexico and Vietnam including land acquisition, factory leasing and company incorporation.
- Supported lead counsel as an expert witness responding to discovery orders in U.S. litigation against an American company.
- Assisted in resolving agency agreement disputes between a Singaporean enterprise and a Chinese company, facilitating recognition and enforcement of a Singapore arbitration award in mainland China.

Working languages: Chinese and English.